Reur 1320, quarantine was initiated by US in accordance broadly worded recommendations COAS/OC Res Oct 23. Pursuant same Res, Arg and other IAs decided participate. US also conducting its continued surveillance in accordance said Res. These actions do Res.

not exhaust possible measures under ~~XXX~~ which has no time limit and which authorizes indefinitely all actions necessary to see that Cuba QTE cannot continue to receive UNQTE offensive weapons.

Thus US action in lifting its quarantine does not (rpt not?) in any way affect continuing legal vailidity of Res, nor of other actions taken by us and others in accordance therewith. In our view Combined Command continues in being until formally dissolved by participating countries even though it not now actively conducting operations.

Intransigence

Considering Castro's continued ~~intransigence~~ inspection, probable continuation negotiations New York, and fact that Soviet commitment to remove bombers not yet implemented, US feels it would be unwise and premature at present for COAS/OC take formal action rescind Res. While OC could pass some resolution re lifting of quarantine, even this seems unnecessary and risky, in case it
